LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

2023 General Legislative Session

Issue #1

January 22, 2023

---

Welcome to the 2023 Legislative Update

This issue includes highlights of week one, what we can expect in the week ahead, and information for protecting wildlife and the environment. Please direct any questions or comments to Steve Erickson: erickson.steve1@comcast.net.

About the Legislative Update

The Legislative Update is made possible by the Utah Audubon Council and contributing organizations. Each Update provides bill and budget item descriptions and status updates throughout the Session, as well as important Session dates and key committees. For the most up-to-date information and the names and contact information for all legislators, check the Legislature's website at www.le.utah.gov. The Legislative Update focuses on legislative information pertaining to wildlife, sensitive and invasive species, public lands, state parks, SITLA land management, energy development, renewable energy and conservation, and water issues. The Update will be distributed after each Friday of the Session. We may also send out additional Action Alerts during the Session as issues arise that need quick action. We hope each Update issue will prepare you to contact your legislators with your opinions and concerns!

ACTION ALERT!

This legislative session could again see dramatic progress on important water conservation and investment in efforts to save Great Salt Lake. Another repeat priority will be to resist funding for Cedar City's West Desert Water Grab of groundwater in the GSL Groundwater Flow System (Pine Valley Water Supply Project). Contact your legislators and legislative leaders and let them know what you hope and expect them to do!

News of Week One (Week # 1)

The legislative session is off to a fast start on highly controversial issues like school vouchers, abortion and transsexual youth, with tax cuts waiting in the wing. The more deliberative budget process is off to the usual slower start, with the focus on passing the base budgets by the Friday, 1/27 deadline.

Several good conservation bills were introduced and a couple advanced in committee action, including SB 76, which will help to coordinate local land use planning with water supply plans. We will be advocating for a top priority bill, HB 218, which would place emissions requirements on the Inland Port. Two bills we strongly oppose are SB 113 to block local control over CAFOs and SB 107 to fund a hydrocarbon highway in the Uinta Basin. We've already begun work to amend two worthwhile bills (SB 53 and SB 119). We will also support second tier priorities HBs 121, 137, 150, 217, and 262, and SBs 34 and 92.

Budget News

Utah has another record budget, now at some $28 billion, with $2-$3 billion in one-time and on-going new state and federal money to spend. So of course, legislative leaders promise another "Year of the Tax Cut". Meanwhile, advocates call for forward-looking investments in education, human services, clean energy, climate and pollution initiatives, water conservation, free transit, and other unmet needs totaling over $5 Billion.

We will be supporting Gov. Cox's recommendations for $561 million in water conservation initiatives, including $100 m. for ag-water rights leases in the Great Salt Lake watershed to shepherd to the Lake. He also asks for $25 m. for the GSL Water Trust, $1.5 m. for GSL and Bear L. lakebed topographical data, and $160,000 to study air quality impacts from dusts blowing off GSL shorelines.

Other important recommendations include $5 m. for turf removal rebates and funding for key water infrastructure projects like water reuse in southern Utah, and $200 m. for the Agricultural Water Optimization Program.

What's Ahead

Week 2 will see Appropriations Subcommittees meet each morning from 8:00-10:50. NRAEQ Appropriations meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Monday's meeting includes discussions of water issues and Requests for Appropriations. Standing Committees meet each day from 2-5. Both chambers will be on the floor each day from 11 to 11:50 or 12:15. Caucus lunches are held on Tuesday and Thursday all Session. Here are the calendars for the 2nd Week:
